LOCAL NEWS.

THE SOUP HOUSE. - From this most excellent, and now almost necessary establishment, is furnished to the poor of the city, daily, about one hundred and seventy-five gallons of good, nutritious soup. The number of applicants is steadily increasing, and the proportion of colored is far in excess of the whites, there being almost ten blacks to one white applicant. We are pleased to state that the Soup House is in general favor, and that the donations from the charitable of our city go far towards the maintenance of the establishment. Since our last notice the Mayor has received from a lady $10; and Mr. Whittington from Harrison Emmerson, jr., one barrel of cabbages for the Soup House.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—An application for an injunction, in a case involving $40,000, is under argument in the United States District Court in session here, in a suit of Benjamin Cater, of Baltimore, against the Central Bank of Virginia and others. Gen. Bradley Johnson, Joseph H. Bradley, and T. Hennissey, counsel for plaintiff, and Francis L. Smith and H. M. Bell, for defendants.

ICE. -The owners of many of the ice houses in this city are filling them with beautiful ice. thick, and clear as crystal, taken trom the Potomac. There will certainly be no necessity of sending away for ice this year, as a more abundant crop has not been known in this section for years.

CORRECTION. - It was Ridgley Encampment No. 5, I. O. O. F., with members from other encampments, from Washington, who visited their brethren in this city on Monday night, and not the Red Men as we stated yesterday.

MARINE DISASTER. -Schooner George S. Green, one of the best vessels engaged in car rying coal between Georgetown and the Eastern ports, was wrecked on her last trip out; the captain and crew saved.

DR. PAUL GREGORY, who has made an examination of the lands in Fairfax county, bordering on the Potomac, thinks the indications are all favorable in that region for coal oil.

EXCURSION ON THE ICE. - Several persons walked on the ice, on the Potomac river, this morning, from Fort Washington to the City of Washington, without let or hindrance.

THE PAVEMENTS have generally, much ice and frozen snow, on them, and walking is dan gerous to the pedestrians who do not take to the middle of the streets.

----COLD WEATHER. - Last night and early this morning the cold was intense. Persons are crossing the Potomac, from shore to shore, on the ice, every day.
